We'll hold our land, our fa - ther's land We'll keep a - live our tongue, —
Our chil - dren shall not Ger - man be, This is a Po - lish land; —
With daunt - less spi - rit, to the last, Who will de - fend our own —
We'll per - se - vere un - to the end, We'll means and ways de - vise, —

We Po - lish na - tion, gal - lant race, Re - nowned in po - em and song, We'll keep our pre - cious,
Va - liant di - vi - sions will soon form, The spi - rit will co - mmand. We'll keep our pre - cious,
Un - til there falls the Teu - ton foe, In so - rrow and in groan. We'll keep our pre - cious,
And from our tears, and toil and blood, See an a - ven - ger rise, Ble ssing with free - dom
